

A person with a mission leaves his / her security behind

(A): True(B): False

A person on a mission from God must have a call of God to do something specific.

(A): True(B): False

Missionaries are always overseas, Not in the U.S.

(A): True(B): False

Arthur Blessitt was a reformer in Rome.

(A): True(B): False

Martin Luther carried a cross around the world.

(A): True(B): False

John Hus was burned at the stake for his faith.

(A): True(B): False

The Story titled "End of the Spear" took place in Ecuador.

(A): True(B): False

Corrie Ten Boom lived the story called "First Fruits"

(A): True(B): False

The Cross and the Switchblade was about David Livingstone.

(A): True(B): False

Deitrich Bonhoeffer was a Pastor from New York who tried to kill Hitler.

(A): True(B): False

Martin Luther wrote the 95 theses and nailed them to the door of a church.

(A): True(B): False

George Muller documented almost 200 answers to prayer

(A): True(B): False

Dorothy Day helped feed the hungry during the depression and had great financial support from the Catholic church.

(A): True(B): False

William Booth started the Salvation Army with the help of the Methodist church.

(A): True(B): False

The Hiding Place was a story about Australian missionaries.

(A): True(B): False

In 1956 there were 5 missionaries killed by natives in Ecuador.

(A): True(B): False

David Wilkerson preached to the gangs in New York City.

(A): True(B): False

Entertaining Angels is a story about the military Chaplains.

(A): True(B): False

Missionaries are often martyred, or sacrifice everything for the call of God.

(A): True(B): False

Modern Christians do not usually understand the price paid by others for the religious freedom we have today.

(A): True(B): False