

In the survey there are 96 questions and 24 possible spiritual gifts.

(A): True(B): False

Spiritual Gifts are more important than Spiritual fruit.

(A): True(B): False

People tend to sensationalize some of the gifts and downplay others.

(A): True(B): False

It is the Pastors job to assign you a spiritual gift.

(A): True(B): False

It is the Pastors job to help equip you to do the work of the ministry.

(A): True(B): False

It is my job to discover my spiritual gifts.

(A): True(B): False

My gifts are a fixed asset to me at birth, I should not try to develop them.

(A): True(B): False

It is my Pastors job alone to deploy my gifts when they are ready.

(A): True(B): False

A spiritual gift can not be earned or acquired with a degree.

I can have a gift and not hold the office of that ministry.

(A): True(B): False

People in the office of a ministry must be on guard not to function out of title and position.

(A): True(B): False

I must hear a calling from God before I take a position in ministry employment (job, career). This is usually when my spiritual gift gets used the most in a local church.

(A): True(B): False

I should promote my spiritual gift publicly if God wants to use me in ministry.

(A): True(B): False

Some gifts are for leadership purposes, some are for behind the scenes.

(A): True(B): False

Some of the gifts are considered Supernatural in nature.

(A): True(B): False

Some spiritual gifts are intended to be used in a support role such as administration, healing and prophecy.

(A): True(B): False

There is a "5 fold" ministry that includes Pastor, Evangelist and Missionary

(A): True(B): False

An Apostle and a Prophet are supposed to equip people to do the work of the ministry.

(A): True(B): False

Faith, miracles and healing are supernatural gifts that are often sensationalized.

(A): True(B): False

Worship Leaders are often put on a pedestal or glamorized for their musical abilities.

(A): True(B): False

One who has the gift of public speaking always has the wisdom to keep his ego in check.

(A): True(B): False

We all have at least 1 spiritual gift.

(A): True(B): False

we are required by God to use the gifts we have to serve others, unless we are not attending a local church.

(A): True(B): False

Every person can acquire every spiritual gift if we grow spiritually enough.

(A): True(B): False

Because of our gift, we sometimes think more highly of ourselves than we should.

(A): True(B): False

Spiritual gifts are the evidence that the spirit of God is in us.

(A): True(B): False

Character can qualify or disqualify the ministry God calls us to.

(A): True(B): False

If we do not use our gift, God will take it away

(A): True(B): False

We will answer to God as a steward of our gifts

(A): True(B): False

Celibacy and Martyrdom are spiritual gifts according to some, but are not on the survey.

(A): True(B): False