

The Carnal mind is at war with the Spirit.

(A): True(B): False

Being Carnal and being worldly are very similar.

(A): True(B): False

to be carnally minded is life and peace; but to be spiritually minded is death.

(A): True(B): False

What we feed grows, what we starve dies

(A): True(B): False

Even if you say Jesus is Lord, God will reject you if you don't really know Him.

(A): True(B): False

We should conform to this world, and not try to be "spiritually" minded.

(A): True(B): False

We can know the good, acceptable, and perfect will of God if we renew our mind.

(A): True(B): False

If there is jealousy and strife among us, we are carnal.

(A): True(B): False

Many people turn away from Christ because they like "the flesh". They reject the life in the spirit.

(A): True(B): False

: Our choices of entertainment (movies, music, socializing) are not a reflection of our moral judgment. It is just for fun.

(A): True(B): False

Christians tend to judge others by their actions and want others to judge us by our intentions.

(A): True(B): False

Carnal living is a result of being selfish and self centered.

(A): True(B): False

Spiritual, renewed minds come from reading stories on facebook.

(A): True(B): False

If I behave in a way that causes someone to stumble, they may be imitating me, but that is their problem; not mine.

(A): True(B): False

People watch the way I live, and I could bring "reproach" against the gospel.

(A): True(B): False

If people perceive me as a hypocrite, my witness will be ineffective.

(A): True(B): False

The Bible says we have a great cloud of witnesses around us.

(A): True(B): False

The worst thing a hypocrite can do is admit their mistakes. That will just confirm the accusations.

(A): True(B): False

Weapons for spiritual warfare are carnal such as weight lifting, arm wrestling, and learning how to debate with people.

(A): True(B): False

If we want to do battle with our flesh, we must pray and stay in Gods word.

(A): True(B): False