

The book of Galatians teaches that obeying God's law is more important than having faith.

(A): True(B): False

Romans Chapter 14 teaches that we should debate about our personal convictions.

(A): True(B): False

Doing good works will produce more faith.

(A): True(B): False

Every cult convinces people to do good works to earn their salvation.

(A): True(B): False

The Pharisees did not know the law of Moses very well.

(A): True(B): False

Paul the Apostle was a Pharisee.

(A): True(B): False

The Parisees knew the Spirit of the Law but not the Letter of the Law.

(A): True(B): False

There were about 60 Pharisees during the time of Herod's Temple.

(A): True(B): False

The Pharisees never overburdened people with strict adherence to the law.

(A): True(B): False

Pharisees would never manipulate the law to benefit themselves.

(A): True(B): False

Josephus, Gamaliel, and Nicodemus were all famous Pharisees.

(A): True(B): False

Jesus endorsed the title and position of the Pharisees.

(A): True(B): False

The original definition of the word Pharisee means 'set apart.'

(A): True(B): False

The Pharisees had a feeling of superiority and elitism.

(A): True(B): False

Pharisees were not very popular and never sought the approval of men.

(A): True(B): False

Modern day Church-goers can attend Bible study and obey all the 10 Commandments and still not go to Heaven.

(A): True(B): False

It is common to reject life in Christ in exchange for our own self righteousness.

(A): True(B): False

Predestination and resurrection beliefs separated the Pharisees and Sadducees.

(A): True(B): False

For a Pharisee, belief was irrelevant; only adherence to the law mattered.

(A): True(B): False

Pharisees believed in reincarnation.

(A): True(B): False