

Nebuchadnezzar was deposed from his throne and stripped of his glory.

(A): True(B): False

Jonah was a humble prophet who rejoiced when the city repented.

(A): True(B): False

Haman was a good friend to Mordecai.

(A): True(B): False

Esther knew that she pulled political weight with the royal throne because she was a Jew.

(A): True(B): False

King Saul was honored by the prophet Samuel for his humility.

(A): True(B): False

In Isaiah 14, Lucifer stated "I will" as a prideful proclamation 5 times.

(A): True(B): False

Hezekiah had great wealth and honor and succeeded in everything he undertook.

(A): True(B): False

King Uzziah's pride led to his downfall.

(A): True(B): False

The Lord struck down King Herod and he was eaten by worms.

(A): True(B): False

The Pharisee compared himself to other peoples sin and boasted of his own righteousness.

(A): True(B): False

Cain was humble and didn't mean to hurt his brother. He was just tired of being compared.

(A): True(B): False

Jesus emptied himself and took on the form of a bond-servant. This is like the modern bail bondsman.

(A): True(B): False

King David humbly worshiped with all his might. His wife was critical of him.

(A): True(B): False

Esther could not remain silent about the impending doom for Israel. She was born "[i]for such a time as this[/i]".

(A): True(B): False

Gideon was hiding like a coward and God did not use him because of his pride.

(A): True(B): False

Moses was the most humble man on the face of the earth.

(A): True(B): False

Daniel was proud of his strength and knew he could fight the lions if he had to.

(A): True(B): False

When the prophet Samuel was a boy, he wasn't sure if God was speaking to him or not, so he went back to bed and forgot about it.

(A): True(B): False

Mary, the mother of Jesus, was proud to be chosen. Because she was a good teen-ager, she felt entitled.

(A): True(B): False

Mary considered herself a lowly servant.

(A): True(B): False