

Seeking God HOW TO - #4

1. Seeking God through prayer should be simple, but we tend to complicate it.

(A): True(B): False

2. When Jesus taught us how to pray, he gave us an outline.

(A): True(B): False

3. God does not respond to vain repetitions or babbling the same thing over and over.

(A): True (B): False

4. After praying with a "Paternal" understanding, we can invite His "Presence" by claiming the meaning of God's name.

(A): True (B): False

5. There are 23 types of prayer in the study.

(A): True (B): False

6. The people of prayer include those in the Bible and those in recent history.

(A): True (B): False

7. The study does not include hindrances to prayer.

(A): True (B): False

8. The Posture of our prayer is not important, we should only focus on the condition of our heart.

(A): True (B): False

9. The Tallit is a Hebrew or Jewish custom and is not mentioned in the New Testament.

(A): True (B): False

10. Max Lucado and Leonard Ravenhill discuss worship and its roll in seeking God.

(A): True (B): False

11. Darlene Czech and Jack Hayford discuss prayer and its roll in seeking God.

(A): True (B): False

12. The Tabernacle is written about more in the Bible than the 10 commandments.

(A): True (B): False

13. The Tabernacle was a pattern given to Noah after the flood.

(A): True (B): False

14. The Tabernacle was the forerunner to the Temple in Jerusalem.

(A): True (B): False

15.) : Their is a pattern given to us on how to worship.

(A): True (B): False

(16. Many people get stuck in the "pattern" and forget the real meanings and values that are taught.

(A): True (B): False

17. Some people stay in the outer court and never "enter in" to the Holy of Holies.

(A): True (B): False

18. There are terms about worship in English, Hebrew and Latin explained.

(A): True (B): False

19. Daily Devotions are always more powerful than public "Corporate" worship when seeking God.

(A): True(B): False

20. As long as you go to church on Sunday, you do not need to study the scriptures on your own time.

(A): True (B): False