“Tolerance” means allowing and respecting another's unique identity.

“Assimilation” is quite different.

Religions are “fundamentally” different and “superficially” similar. (Ravi Zach)

Jesus said, “I am the way the truth and the life” (no one comes to the Father but by me)

“THE” is a definite article - isolated; one of a kind. Christianity is NOT compatible or able to “partner” with other religions in regards to salvation.

Buddha was born a Hindu but rejected the basic beliefs. (polytheism and perpetual reincarnation, as well as the authority of the veda's / scripture). His path to enlightenment led to the 4 noble truths which lead to Nirvana. Tibetan Buddhist Monks believe in the successive reincarnation which creates the lineage of a Dalai Lama. This is exclusive in nature.

Muhammad wrote the Quran while plagiarizing parts of the Old Testament. This is the only book that claims the existence of Christ, but denies the crucifixion in spite of all other secular and Jewish historians that concur on the facts. Islam requires 5 pillars and practices which Allah rewards in paradise, but excludes infidels.

Jewish traditions and laws teach separation from Gentiles (non-Jews) as to preserve the faith and customs of the Nation of Israel. Israelis are a chosen race by God to live in the promised land and protect the boundaries of that nation.
