

Test name: Boundaries 2Question 1 of 20

Great relationships are often difficult

- A) True
- B) False

Question 2 of 20

we should avoid conflicts at all costs

- A) True
- B) False

Question 3 of 20

Good Christians must welcome everyone into our inner circle

- A) True
- B) False

Question 4 of 20

Handling conflict incorrectly can cause us to withdraw socially

- A) True

B) False

Question 5 of 20

Passive people are always nice and happy

A) True

B) False

Question 6 of 20

Aggressive people are usually insecure

A) True

B) False

Question 7 of 20

Passive Aggressive people have ulterior motives

A) True

B) False

Question 8 of 20

Boundaries are not right for Christians to have with true friends

A) True

B) False

Question 9 of 20

Saying NO to people is not nice

- A) True
- B) False

Question 10 of 20

Paul the apostle spoke about people who opposed him in the Bible.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 11 of 20

Johnathon was a good friend to Elijah

- A) True
- B) False

Question 12 of 20

Absalom and Jezebel were good mentors and role models

- A) True
- B) False

Question 13 of 20

Elisha was an apprentice, did twice as many miracles as his mentor, but died an unfortunate death.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 14 of 20

The Pharisees were not frustrating to Jesus

- A) True
- B) False

Question 15 of 20

Jesus was always kind, polite and easy on the disciples

- A) True
- B) False

Question 16 of 20

If you are always being taken advantage of, you could be an enabler.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 17 of 20

If you want to get along with people, you must hide your true feelings

- A) True
- B) False

Question 18 of 20

Healthy families do not have issues like dysfunctional families.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 19 of 20

Communication is not necessary for quiet introverted people.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 20 of 20

I can not have close friends because other people are difficult.

- A) True
- B) False