

Test name: Boundaries 4 corners

Question 1 of 20

There are 5 corners to our personal universe.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 2 of 20

The corners represent the types of relationships we have.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 3 of 20

There is NOT much "power" in a relationship with someone else, if it's bad or unhealthy. Only the good and healthy ones can have power.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 4 of 20

Dr Cloud spoke of Navy seals and Army pilots in the video.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 5 of 20

Dr Cloud never shared a personal experience with a failed business relationship in the video.

- A) True

B) False

Question 6 of 20

The first corner of the universe is isolation.

A) True

B) False

Question 7 of 20

The second corner is fake or pseudo relationships.

A) True

B) False

Question 8 of 20

The second corner is bad relationships.

A) True

B) False

Question 9 of 20

The fourth corner is a good, right and healthy relationship.

A) True

B) False

Question 10 of 20

Once you find yourself in corners 1, 2, or 3, you can never get out.

A) True

B) False

Question 11 of 20

At any given time, you can run to corner 4

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 12 of 20

Corner 1 includes depression, anxiety, fear, paranoia, panic, terror, rage, suspicious, moving away, and afraid.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 13 of 20

Corner 3 includes this motto - "God's good, you're bad, try harder"

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 14 of 20

In corner 4 your "systems" are thriving, You get hope back, and you are real.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 15 of 20

In corner 4 your connection fuels, gives freedom, requires responsibility, but never deals with failure, or pushes you.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 16 of 20

Dr Cloud tells a story in the video about his personal trainer and his "before" picture.

-
- A) True
 B) False

Question 17 of 20

Titus was a "God send" to Paul and God used him to bring comfort.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 18 of 20

2 Cor 7:6, 7 says God used a friend to minister through depression.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 19 of 20

The story of the heart surgeon was a reflection of those who depend on themselves for everything.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 20 of 20

Henry Cloud had a mentor who criticized him for his failure with a business partner.

- A) True
 B) False