

DISCERNMENT...

Discernment is the ability to see things for what they REALLY are and not for what you WANT them to be.

We must learn who is gold and who is simply gold-plated.

Quote of the Day

Discernment is God's call to intercession, never to faultfinding.
Corrie Ten Boom

BrainyQuote

When a person goes into a relationship emotionally needy, they are not going to have discernment in choosing people.

Discernment is NOT knowing the difference between right and wrong.

It IS knowing the difference between right and ALMOST right.

Some people think they have discernment when actually they are just suspicious.

Discernment is a sign of a healthy People. In a sick or dying nation, civilization, culture or race, substance is abandoned in favor of appearance.

David Lane

“Some people think they have discernment when actually they are just suspicious..”

Suspicion comes out of the unrenewed mind; discernment comes out of the renewed spirit.”
— Joyce Meyer, Battlefield of the Mind:

Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God.” Gamaliel
Acts 5:38

“Wise men are not pacifists; they are merely less likely to jump up and retaliate against their antagonizers. They know that needless antagonizers are insecure enough.”
