

Logos & Rhema

Word of God Defined
Logos	Rhema
Logos, or the word of God, is all 31,173 verses of the Bible and all the subjects contained therein. It is everything God has left recorded in the Bible for our spiritual instruction – the whole counsel of God. Logos is defined as the subject matter, teaching, topic, doctrine, and overview of God’s plan for the human race.	Rhema is one verse of scripture, it is the confessed word, the creative word, a single promise, utterance, phrase, command, or isolated affirmation. Logos is the Bible in its entirety; Rhema is the Bible by special application. Logos is the general word, Rhema, the specific word.
