

QUOTES on the WILL of God

“I am Thy servant to do Thy will, and that will is sweeter to me than position or riches or fame, and I choose it above all things on Earth or in Heaven.” — A.W. Tozer

“When the Lord makes it clear you're to follow Him in this new direction, focus fully on Him and refuse to be distracted by comparisons with others.” — Swindoll Charles R.

“Your call will become clear as as your mind is transformed by the reading of Scripture and the internal work of God's Spirit. The Lord never hides His will from us. In time, as you obey the call first to follow, your destiny will unfold before you. The difficulty will lie in keeping other concerns from diverting your attention.” — Swindoll Charles R.

“The will of God prevails. In great contests each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God. Both may be, and one must be, wrong. God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time. In the present civil war it is quite possible that God's purpose is something different from the purpose of either party — Abraham Lincoln

“God's plan for your life is happening right now. It doesn't begin when you get married or when you get your dream job or when everything feels perfect. You are IN the plan.

“The only way you're going to reach places you've never gone is if you trust God's direction to do things you've never done.” — Germany Kent

“It's nice to consider that God may not count imperfection as an obstacle to working out his will in our life

“If you aren't vigilant, if you aren't daily humbling yourself before Him, seeking His face, discerning His timing, operating under the Spirit's control, you may push and shove and force your way prematurely into that place where God wanted you, but you will not have arrived in His own time.”

— Charles R. Swindoll, Moses: A Man of Selfless Dedication

“[Moses] dedicated himself to the will of God, but not to the God whose will it was.”

— Charles R. Swindoll, Moses: A Man of Selfless Dedication

“You and I can become so dedicated to the will of God, we can be so driven by a false sense of purpose, that we might inadvertently take matters into our own hands and leave God completely out of the loop.”

— Charles R. Swindoll, Moses: A Man of Selfless Dedication

The first end I propose in our daily work is to do the will of God; secondly, to do it in the manner he wills it; and thirdly to do it because it is his will.
