

Test name: Gods Will

Question 1 of 50

To know Gods will is to know his heart, his mind, and his thoughts.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 2 of 50

We can learn Gods will by reading his word.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 3 of 50

We can always hear his voice when we pray, if we are spiritual enough.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 4 of 50

I can choose what is best for my future when I confront my excuses and take responsibility for my actions in the past.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 5 of 50

Gods will is elusive, I can not really know for sure about anything.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 6 of 50

Gods will is mystical and different in every case.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 7 of 50

If I am afraid to make choices, I can be stuck and procrastinate.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 8 of 50

If I get in a hurry and do things impulsively, I do not show good wisdom.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 9 of 50

I can learn Gods will from asking others about their mistakes.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 10 of 50

I can learn Gods will by asking unbelievers about why they don't obey the Bible.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 11 of 50

If I live with purpose, and set priorities to honor God, I am much more likely to walk in Gods will.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 12 of 50

Big life decisions are more important than small daily decisions.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 13 of 50

If I don't read Gods word, I probably think with a worldly mindset.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 14 of 50

If I take counsel from non Christian friends, I am not likely to hear from God.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 15 of 50

I should ask "WHY" I do things, and I will learn more about purposeful living. This will help me understand the will of God for me.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 16 of 50

Gods will for my neighbor may be different than His will for me. This is always true. Nothing is the same for 2 different people.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 17 of 50

The Bible never says "This is Gods will for you"

- A) True
 B) False

Question 18 of 50

Jesus came into the world to reveal himself. The purpose of His word is to reveal Himself to us. People are often confused because they don't know Gods word.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 19 of 50

If we focus on our past mistakes, we could miss Gods plan for the future.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 20 of 50

I should pray for God to open doors and close doors of opportunity.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 21 of 50

We should not waste time preparing for the future, we never know what will happen.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 22 of 50

Preparing for things shows a lack of faith.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 23 of 50

The wise virgins who waited on the bridegroom in the Bible were prepared.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 24 of 50

Preparing for God to use us may include saving money.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 25 of 50

Preparation may also include Bible study.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 26 of 50

God gave Moses a detailed plan for the tabernacle, so he made preparations.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 27 of 50

If you are decisive, driven and focused, you might not be able to hear from God about His plan for you.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 28 of 50

If you are double minded, timid and confused, you will not know the mind of Christ.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 29 of 50

When God speaks to us, it is not important to write it down. He will bring it to pass anyway.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 30 of 50

Knowing when to do something can be just as important as what to do.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 31 of 50

Gods word and wise Godly counsel are the best ways to know Gods will.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 32 of 50

God will not speak to us about our career, or buying a house. Those are worldly matters, not spiritual.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 33 of 50

Most people want to know about Gods will for ME, instead of asking how my decisions are effecting Gods plan for me.

- A) True

B) False

Question 34 of 50

If you seek God with a whole heart, you may or may not find Him.

A) True

B) False

Question 35 of 50

If I do not obey God when I know what to do, He will not reveal more to me.

A) True

B) False

Question 36 of 50

When Gods will conflicts with my will, I should yield to my wife.

A) True

B) False

Question 37 of 50

My husband is the biggest reason I can not fully obey God.

A) True

B) False

Question 38 of 50

Jesus said, If you love me, you will obey what I command

A) True

B) False

Question 39 of 50

Most people are preoccupied with wanting to know the future instead of walking in obedience today.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 40 of 50

Setting goals only succeeds in putting God in a box.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 41 of 50

Waiting on God to reveal Himself is not hard if you are a spiritual person.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 42 of 50

Living with the uncertainty of the future can be the definition of faith.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 43 of 50

Separating from people can help you hear from God.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 44 of 50

Instead of asking God to bless what we are doing, we should be doing what He is blessing.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 45 of 50

We should recognize where God is at work and join Him.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 46 of 50

We must put accomplishments ahead of relationships if we are going to make a difference in this world. It will show that we really obey God.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 47 of 50

Some people don't go to church because they're not sure which one is right for them.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 48 of 50

Some people aren't employed because they're waiting on the "right" job.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 49 of 50

Some people don't read the Bible because they don't understand King James English.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 50 of 50

It is always Gods will for us to work, go to church, and read the Bible.

- A) True
- B) False