

More Controversial Similarities –

1. Moses and Jesus have a Vision Quest! (purpose of a sweat lodge)

Moses went up Mt Sinai 40 days, Jesus went into the wilderness 40 days–

Prophets see visions, dreams, Paul and Peter did

Native Americans believe that we were put on Earth for a special reason, but we often do not know why and without this knowledge we feel lost and confused. That's why Native Americans practice a vision quest that is meant to open the door to the spiritual world and help us find our path in life. An attempt to achieve a vision often through the process of fasting, isolation and meditation. For Christians the focus must always be on Jesus, The Holy Spirit and Gods word, not an animal spirit guide.

2. The Levitical priest / Ephod and breastplate –

The Native American Pow Wow garments, shawls, ribbon work, headdress

3. Pow Wow gathering and celebration –

Jewish festivals and feasts –

4. Ezekiel's wheel and the medicine wheel –

5. Valley of dry bones – ghost dance

6. Esther and the Holocaust – Genocide

7. Book of Revelation – a vision from a Medicine man?

4 horsemen apocalypse

8. Daniels vision of the bronze statue – Totem pole (animal spirit guide)

Aarons staff with the snake to heal people

9.

10.