

Multiple Spirits in the Bible –

Holy Spirit – Gen 1:2 - "The earth was without form, and void; and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters." "And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

John 3: Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit. Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

John 4:²³ Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. ²⁴ God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth."

1 John 4:1 - Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God:

Evil spirits (demons) –

Spirit of the anti Christ – 1 John 4:3

7 spirits of God? - or 1 Spirit with several virtues?

Isa 11:2 - The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him— the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of might, the Spirit of the knowledge and fear of the LORD—

Revelation 1:4 - John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

Revelation 3:1 - And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

Revelation 4:5 - And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

Revelation 5:6 - And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

Who are the six demons who go by the names Cain, Nero, Judas, Legion, Belial and Lucifer?

Legion, however, would qualify. The term is used in the New Testament by the multitude of demons, or devils, that Jesus cast out of the young man possessed by them. When asked who they were, the devils called themselves Legion, because they numbered many. So eager were the demons to possess a body that they asked if they could enter into the bodies of a herd a swine nearby when cast out of the young man, and Jesus assented. When they did, the swine made a frenzied dash to their deaths in the sea (see Mark 5:1–15; Luke 8:26–33).

Belial might qualify. The word is found almost exclusively in the Old Testament to refer to those who are wicked. It means “worthless.” As demons are wicked and worthless, they could be referred to as Belial. But the word is also used to refer to mortals who have chosen to disobey God and His commandments.

Lucifer most certainly qualifies. As the leader of those who rebelled against God in heaven (see Isaiah 14:12; Luke 10:18; Revelation 12:7–9), he was cast out of God’s presence, never to receive a body, and consigned forever to darkness. His sole purpose on earth seems to be to convince as many of God’s children as possible to follow him in misery so he can reign over them in hell. Ironically, the name Lucifer means “light bearer,” or “morning star,” suggesting the incredibly long way the prince of darkness has fallen from God’s presence.
