

Stereotypes...labels...leadership and governing

Jordan Peterson (me too, feminists, etc)

- 1. Is there, and should there be hierarchy in life?
- 2. modern culture tries to avoid labels and categories of any kind (because this promotes power and creates discrimination) (T / F)
- 3. Men are tyrannical patriarchs, they oppress women and minorities (T / F)
- 4. Recognition of competence leads to a natural hierarchy in the family, workplace, civil government (T / F)
- 5. All power is corrupt and all corrupt power is tyranny (T / F)
- 6. Every value system produces a hierarchy (T / F)
- 7. Dispense with the hierarchy and you dispense with the values (T / F)
- 8. Adolescent insistence that “sexual activity can be rule free” began in the 1960’s after the invent of birth control. (T / F)
- 9. This insistence has led to LGBTQ+, transgender, erosion of patriarch, matriarch, or any family leadership on values. (T / F)
- 10. Women primarily control sexual impulse because they bear a greater consequence (pregnant) (T / F)
- 11. As long as people live together, and don’t marry, there is no long term obligation to the other party. (T / F)
- 12. Sexual behavior can not be divorced from emotion, responsibility, family, respect, morality, intimacy, power, or love. (T / F)

- 13. Who makes up the rules for sex, if there are any? How do you differentiate between a sexual invitation and harassment?
- 14. Men almost always make the offer or invitation (within marriage or apart from it) and its almost always rejected (T /F)
- 15. Women who usually reject the offer, might sometimes accept it under certain circumstances, thus are prone to manipulate the outcome.
- 16. A “micro aggression” is when an unwanted glance becomes unwelcome. It is when the recipient becomes “uncomfortable” regardless of the intent.
- 17. Legal systems are moving the focus on “intent” because post modern radicals reject a patriarchal system as an oppressive tradition.
- 18. If you’ve never been in an Iranian prison, you don’t know how to differentiate between tyranny and a free society.
