

Joshua, Judges Ruth - - - review (T) (F)

1. Joshua was a great military leader who won every single battle.
2. The Battle of Ai was a learning lesson of obedience.
3. Rahab was a cloth dealer in Jericho.
4. Rahab gave lodging to 3 men and helped them take the city.
5. Jericho was built on sand and leaned over easily when too many visitors came to the gate at once.
6. Achan had pains in his back and people said he was aiken a lot.
7. Achan tried to lie, steal and sneak his disobedience from the community.
8. The Michael Jordan river was named after a basketball player.
9. In one battle, people believed the sun stood still.
10. Deborah was one of the 15 judges who ruled over Israel.
11. Barak told Deborah that he would follow her command if she accompanied him.
12. Deborah's leadership in delivering Israel from oppression is commemorated in Judges chapter 5.
13. Gideon was a judge who printed small Bibles and gave them out for free.
14. Gideon and his 300 men lit torches, blew trumpets and shouted.
15. Gideon could have taken 32,000 men but only took 300 who drank water from plastic bottles. They recycled.
16. Samson had a girlfriend named Delilah who did a radio talk show.
17. Samson was a great leader and judge.
18. Ruth obeyed and was loyal to Naomi and God.
19. Boaz was a kinsmen redeemer.
20. Boaz had several cousins not mentioned in the Bible.