

I DECLARE WAR—2 ACT LIKE A WOLF

You're sons of Light, daughters of Day. We live under wide open skies and know where we stand. ⁶So let's not sleepwalk through life like those others. Let's keep our eyes open and be smart. ⁷People sleep at night and get drunk at night. ⁸But not us! Since we're creatures of Day, let's act like it. Walk out into the daylight sober, dressed up in faith, love, and the hope of salvation. ⁹God didn't set us up for an angry rejection but for salvation by our Master, Jesus Christ. ¹⁰He died for us, a death that triggered life. Whether we're awake with the living or asleep with the dead, we're alive with him! 1 Thessalonians 5:5–10 MSG

Your daily activity should come from your new identity.

... Since we're creatures of Day, let's act like it. ... 1 Thessalonians 5:8

TALK IT OVER

Wolves are both brave and nurturing. Which of those traits comes easier to you? Which do you have a tougher time embodying?

Think about your “pack,” aka the people closest to you. What sort of influence do you think they have on you?

What are some habits you could try to help you become who God says you are?
