

Jerry from Rhode Island had recently started going to church and taking his family. He went out to cut down a tree as he had done hundreds of times before, but something went wrong. The tree kicked back and he was pinned to the ground and lost consciousness. After 10 days, they took his arm and leg.

He said through the tears of feeling inadequate, losing sleep, laying next to his wife, he wasn't complete. He called out to God, he read his Bible more than ever. He used to doubt and question the sincerity of his relationship with God until he had nothing. This experience gave him complete assurance, and confidence in his salvation. His relationship with Christ was stronger than ever.

Would you...would I... trade an arm and a leg for that?

Lowell was abandoned by his mother at 2 years old. He violently physically threatened his adopted siblings as a child due to anger and unresolved issues. He joined the military and then became a criminal for 17 years. He joined a white supremacy gang in prison and spent years in solitary confinement.

He heard the gospel on the radio in prison. He cried out to God and attended chapel for 10 years. He learned companionship with Christ as he began to renew his mind. He experienced a GRACE that few can understand.

Brett was born in North Carolina and grew up skateboarding and surfing but didn't know God.

He experimented with drinking and drugs. He wondered and questioned if God was real. He felt darkness, and madness. His marriage failed as he went through several failed rehabs. God sent him a Christian friend who was unwavering. He was introduced to a godly woman. He still struggled with addictions but took daily steps in the right direction. He began to memorize scriptures and replace the worldly desires with the pursuit of God. He looks back on the emptiness and hopes to help lead others to peace and purpose with Christ.

John Ramirez grew up in New York and saw his first murder as a young boy when he went to the store to get milk.

His mother and father were a self-proclaimed witch and warlock with a personal contract with Satan to do his bidding. He was trained in evil worship experiences and casting spells. He learned to pray to spirits and principalities on the rooftop of a building in the Bronx. He would participate in Tarot card readings, voodoo curses and seances. His mother gave him a special necklace with 5 beads to represent 5 demons who watched over him. He would practice Astor projection where his spirit left his body and he traveled over the city to claim territorial authority over regions of New York, giving way for channeling named spirits of violence, murder, prostitution, drugs, and more. He partnered with doctors, lawyers, judges and teachers who practiced his religion. At 33 years old he made a pack with Lucifer to set up his father to be shot in the face. This continued UNTIL...

Nicki Cruz came to his streets with a block party and young preachers prayed with him and renounced the devil. John attended David Wilkerson's church called Times Square Church and when he accepted Christ He wrote a book titled "Out of the Devils Cauldron" . He came face to face with Grace and Mercy!

What's your story? Can you see the Patient hand of God in your life story?

How has God revealed himself to you? How have you experienced GRACE?
