

Questions for living in Enid America today...4-8-20

1. We have lived in a democratic, capitalistic society all my life. Is it really possible for us to turn communist, atheist, and martial law rapidly?
  2. If we don't "fellowship" and interact with other Christians of like faith more than once a week, can we really be led astray? Could the USA govt actually make it illegal to attend church?
  3. Will there be a great falling away? Separation of sheep and goats? Disciples from religious posers?
  4. If some know the Bible and have their mind renewed, could they become enemies of the state?
  5. Can the Bible really be outlawed as hate speech?
  6. Can evangelical, fundamentalist Christians be labeled divisive, cult like followers and discredited by society.
  7. If our economy collapses because of closed businesses, could we go into recession? Depression? One world currency? Socialist Rationing?
  8. Could the world health organization push for a one world leader?
  9. Could the united nations (including the USA) ban together and rise up against Israel?
  10. Could we be required to be vaccinated or quarantined from "safe" people? Will people protect material things and this fleshly body over salvation and eternity?
  11. Could a mandatory vaccine include a tracking device or ID?
  12. Are literal Bible believing Christians prone to believe conspiracy theories?
  13. Does the "world" distinguish sanity and mentally balanced ideas different from Christian fundamentalists? Like – "tolerance" "inclusion" "personal rights over right to life" etc.
