Annie Wise was voted prom king and Riley Loudermilk was voted prom queen at Kings High School.

"I admire this generation for their thirst of knowledge and understanding, their strength to stand up for what they believe in," said one parent.

Another unidentified parent at the board meeting disagreed. "Sorry, but I believe that there are still two genders, a male and a female."

These were two of the many opinions voiced at Tuesday night's board meeting. They underline a community on the precipice of change: some for it, others against it.

"It made me mad that adults were commenting on a high school dance," said Traci Loudermilk, whose daughter was voted prom queen.

School officials said the decision was made by the student body.

"This is solely a Kings High School senior class nominated and voted-on initiative," said Dawn Goulding, a community relations coordinator for the school district.

Two girls voted king and queen on Ohio high school prom court stirs controversy

KINGS MILLS, Ohio -- Parents gave heated statements at an Ohio school board meeting, voicing their concerns about teachings some say are racist — and also about this year's prom court.

MORE FROM KOCO 5 News →

The mothers of the two girls voted prom king and queen say they're proud of the couple for breaking the barrier.

But some of the comments on the school's Facebook post about the king and queen titles made them sad.

"Some people, you're never going to change their mind. And you know what? That's OK too. People are allowed to believe and feel what they believe and feel," Jen Kirby, mother of Annie Wise, said.

For some parents, the issues go deeper than prom court.

"It's been brought to my attention that at least one teacher who flies not only the BLM flag but also a gay pride flag, refuses to fly the American flag," one parent said.

Parents also voiced additional concerns around the New York Times' best-selling book "Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You," a book junior and senior English elective students have been instructed to read.

Some parents called it racist, while school administrators are calling it a path to cultural competency.

So even though degrading comments about a specific gender aren't allowed, we have to see this in our otherwise lovely bird watching feed?

I see quite a bit of gaslighting behavior aimed at the people telling you this is a problem, too. Gross.

Maybe misogynistic jokes just aren't as funny as you were told they were years ago? Like rape jokes? Not funny. Like racist jokes? Not funny.

Telling people to accept abuse as entertainment because it's easier than allowing the hurt to speak is just awful.

Some people should truly feel ashamed.

“Gender” Identity? Male and female? Hermaphrodite?

Sexual sin? Adultery, fornication, masturbation, homosexuality, pan sexualism, bestiality, pedophilia, (consenting adults? As long as you don’t hurt anyone? Love is love?)

Gen 5:2 - When God created mankind, he made them in the likeness of God. ² He created them male and female and blessed them. And he named them “Mankind”^[a] when they were created.

Hebrews 13:4

Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous.

Gender identity is defined as a personal conception of oneself as male or female (or rarely, both or neither). This concept is intimately related to the concept of gender role, which is defined as the outward manifestations of personality that reflect the gender

Defined? either of the two sexes (male and female), especially when considered with reference to social and cultural differences rather than biological ones. The term is also used more broadly to denote a range of identities that do not correspond to established ideas of male and female.

Gender reveal? a public announcement by expectant parents of the sex of their unborn child.

Roles? Masculine? Feminine?

Until the 70s of the last century, the scientific community has been recognized masculinity and femininity as opposite traits - the more expressed is one of these gender traits in personality, the less clearly expressed the other.

But social psychologist Dr. Sandra Lipsitz Bem suggested a person can have a high level of masculinity and femininity at the same time. Moreover, such a combination is normal for many people and defines their personality as androgynous. The result of her research was the Bem Sex-Role Inventory, a tool to measure gender traits.

The PT Gender-Role Interactive Test was inspired by BSRI and developed as a modern inventory to measure of masculinity and femininity.

Bem's work is harshly criticized as not taking cultural, religious, and social differences into account. It's important to understand that gender stereotypes have changed significantly in recent decades and masculinity and femininity as concepts have become much more complex. Though gender stereotyping is controversial, the BSRI remained a popular test and a quite valid tool for measuring different aspects of gender traits with high levels of validity and reliability.

Fluidity?

Transgender?

gender dysphoria? the feeling of discomfort or distress that might occur in people whose gender identity differs from their sex assigned at birth or sex-related physical characteristics. Transgender and gender-nonconforming people might experience gender dysphoria at some point in their lives

“A woman shall not wear a man's garment, nor shall a man put on a woman's cloak, for whoever does these things is an abomination to the Lord your God.

1 Cor 6:9 - Or do you not know that the unrighteous^[b] will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality,^[c] nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹ And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Flee Sexual Immorality

¹²“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are helpful. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything. ¹³“Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food”—and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴ And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. ¹⁵ Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶ Or do you not know that he who is joined^[d] to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, “The two will become one flesh.” ¹⁷ But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. ¹⁸ Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin^[e] a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. ¹⁹ Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, ²⁰ for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

1 Cor 5:1 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. ² And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you.

³ For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. ⁴ When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵ you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.^[a]

⁹ I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— ¹⁰ not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. ¹¹ But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. ¹² For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church^[b] whom you are to judge? ¹³ God judges^[c] those outside. “Purge the evil person from among you.”

Romans 1:26-27

For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Gen. 19:4 - But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house. ⁵ And they called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them.” ⁶ Lot went out to the men at the entrance, shut the door after him, ⁷ and said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. ⁸ Behold, I have two daughters who have not known any man. Let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof.” ⁹ But they said, “Stand back!” And they said, “This fellow came to sojourn, and he has become the judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them.” Then they pressed hard against the man Lot, and drew near to break the door down. ¹⁰ But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them and shut the door. ¹¹ And they struck with blindness the men who were at the entrance of the house, both small and great, so that they wore themselves out groping for the door.

The devil relishes in the destruction of the family. The family is the first and most fundamental of all institutions God ordained in Scripture. The family is the educational unit of the nation that God ordained to pass on a godly spiritual legacy to coming generations and impact the world with the saving gospel.

Increasingly, those promoting the LGBT worldview don't just want freedom but total acceptance by all and the destruction of the Christian worldview. "Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8).

Melbourne Schools Encouraged to Stop Saying 'Mum' and 'Dad' in Favour of More Inclusive Language

BY KURT ZINDULKA
APRIL 12, 2021 · 2 MIN READ

Schools in Melbourne, Australia, have been called upon to abandon using words such as 'mum' and 'dad' in favour of more so-called gender-inclusive language.

As a part of the North Western Melbourne Primary Health Network's #SpeakingUpSpeaksVolumes campaign, which aims to support 'LGBTQI+' children in schools, the advocacy group has suggested that schools in Melbourne fly rainbow flags, scrap single-sex bathrooms, and introduce non-gendered sports teams.

The campaign has also called for teachers, as well as pupils, to refrain from using words such as 'boyfriend', which they say should be replaced with "partner". The group said that parental pronouns such as mum and dad should also be abandoned for the more inclusive "parent", the Daily Mail reported.

Beth Moore apologizes for her role in elevating 'complementarian' theology that limits women leaders

In an email to Religion News Service, Moore didn't go quite so far as to say she has entirely abandoned complementarianism. But she no longer sees it as essential.

(RNS) — First she shook the evangelical world by leaving the Southern Baptist Convention. Now Beth Moore, arguably the evangelical world's most famous Bible teacher, has begged forgiveness for supporting the theology of male headship rooted in many evangelical cultures.

In a Twitter thread Wednesday (April 7), Moore took aim at complementarianism, the 20th century theological framework that argues men and women were created for different roles and that effectively champions male headship and female submission.

For some evangelicals, complementarianism is a line in the sand. Those who question it are seen as undermining belief in the Bible. Moore said that was wrong.

“Let me be blunt,” Moore tweeted. “When you functionally treat complementarianism—a doctrine of MAN—as if it belongs among the matters of 1st importance, yea, as a litmus test for where

But over the past 20 years, Southern Baptists, along with other mostly white evangelical denominations, launched an industry of books, devotional literature, conferences and seminary programs celebrating “the dignity” of traditional gender roles in which wives submit to their husbands in the home and only men can preach in the church. Many have suggested that as Jesus is subordinate to God the Father, so women must be subordinate to men — a heresy for most Christians who view the three members of the Trinity as equal.

“This whole complementarian ideology is a historical construction,” said Kristin Du Mez, a Calvin University historian and author of “Jesus and John Wayne: How White Evangelicals Corrupted a Faith and Fractured a Nation.” “All the packaging that comes with it — what it means to be a man, what it means to be a woman — that’s a historical and cultural creation, even as it’s packaged and sold as timeless, inerrant and biblical.”

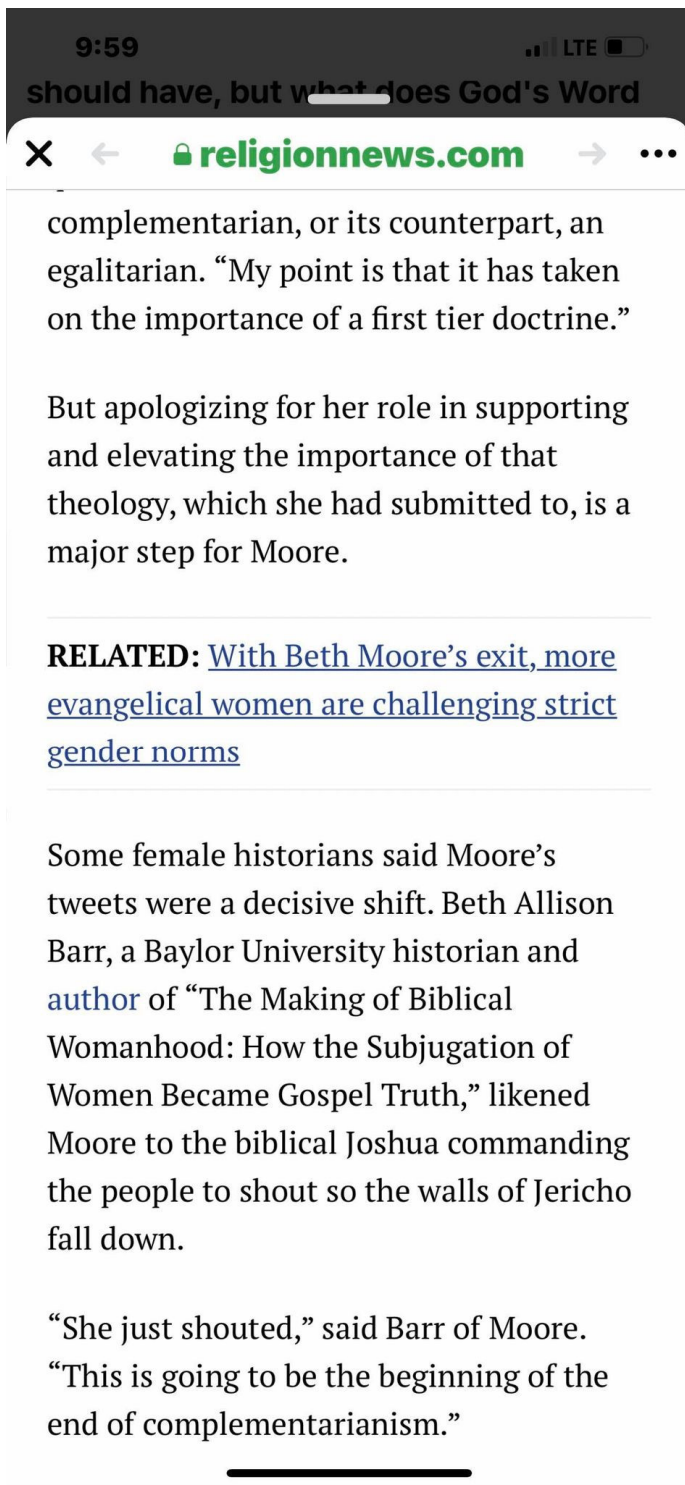

“Let me be blunt,” Moore tweeted. “When you functionally treat complementarianism—a doctrine of MAN—as if it belongs among the matters of 1st importance, yea, as a litmus test for where one stands on inerrancy & authority of Scripture, you are the ones who have misused Scripture. You went too far.”

She also apologized for her past view on the matter.

“I beg your forgiveness where I was complicit,” she said on social media. “I could not see it for what it was until 2016. I plead your forgiveness for how I just submitted to it and supported it and taught it.”

In an email to Religion News Service, Moore didn’t go quite so far as to say she has entirely abandoned complementarianism. But she no longer sees it as essential.

“I’m not going to be pushed into either category right now because that’s not my point.” Moore wrote in response to a
